Mayor, Library Director, and Rapid City RUSH General Manager to present autographed RUSH hockey stick to winner in Library Card Sign-Up Month drawing

September was 'National Library Card Sign-up Month' and the Rapid City Public Library offered a number of promotions to increase library use and patronage, including a prize drawing for anyone who got or renewed a card. The new Rapid City RUSH hockey team generously donated an autographed hockey stick as one of the prizes.

The library announced today that the winner of the hockey stick was Elizabeth Schubert, who'll receive a great memento of the team's inaugural season in Rapid City. The hockey stick will be presented to Schubert on Wednesday, October 29, 2008 at 5:15 pm at RUSH headquarters in the Rushmore Plaza Civic Center. Mayor Alan Hanks and Library Director Greta Chapman will join RUSH General Manager Jason Rent and team mascot 'Nugget' in making the presentation.

The library signed up 1,223 library cards in September 2008, far exceeding the goal of 825 that needed to be achieved to meet the 'Mayor's Challenge' to beat card sign-ups in September, 2007 by 10 percent.
