Abracadabra! Alakazam!
Magician Cody Landstrom to Appear at Libraries

Rapid City, S.D. –Magician and entertainer extraordinaire, Cody Landstrom, will be performing his amazing sleight of hand illusions at both Rapid City Public Libraries on Friday, June 26.

Landstrom skillfully combines his comedy, magic, astonishing hand illusions and juggling into a masterful “How did he do that?” performance. Adults and children alike will be amazed, stunned, laughing and wanting more as they witness the teleporting balls, the knot that jumps, expert lassoing, amazing juggling, stunning mind reading and much, much more.

Shows for all ages will take place at 10 a.m. at the Downtown Library located at 610 Quincy St. and 2 p.m. at the North Library located at 10 Van Buren St. in General Beadle Elementary.

In addition to his performances, Landstrom will be hosting two Magic Workshops for all ages on the same day. The workshop at the Downtown Library starts at 9 a.m. and the workshop at the North Library starts at 1 p.m. Both workshops are limited to 50 participants. If you would like to attend either workshop, please call 394-4171 to reserve a spot.

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library's downtown library as one of the nation's 10 greatest places to "Find a Nook and Read a Book."
