World Travelers, Bruce and Tass, Featured at Lunch and Learn

Rapid City, S.D. – April 15, 2010 – Explore the world with Bruce Junek and Tass Thacker at the library's Lunch & Learn program on Wednesday, April 21 from noon to 1 p.m. Junek and Thacker will present "Life Journeys," an introspective and personal account of their travels and unique lifestyle featuring photographs from their adventures. This event takes place at the downtown Rapid City Public Library located at 610 Quincy St.

Junek and Thacker live in Rapid City, but have spent the last 34 years traveling through 52 countries. Through their company, Images of the World, they share their journeys through photos and stories of what they have learned along the way.

This program is made possible with a grant from the South Dakota Humanities Council, an affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Lunch is provided compliments of the Friends of the Library organization. Anyone who would like lunch must RSVP to the library by noon on Monday, April 19 by calling 394-4171. You may attend without having lunch.

###

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within

General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library's downtown library as one of the nation's 10 greatest places to "Find a Nook and Read a Book."
