Learn about Dakota Rural Action at Library Lunch Program

Rapid City, S.D. – March 8, 2010 – Learn about Dakota Rural Action at the library's Lunch & Learn program on Wednesday, March 17 from noon to 1 p.m. Dakota Rural Action is a grassroots organization that aims to give people a strong voice in decisions affecting their quality of life. The group works to promote and protect family agriculture, fair trade, and South Dakota's environment and unique way of life. This event takes place at the downtown Rapid City Public Library located at 610 Quincy St.

Lunch is provided compliments of the Friends of the Library organization. Anyone who would like lunch must RSVP to the library by noon on Monday, March 15 by calling 394-4171. You may attend without having lunch.

###

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library's downtown library as one of the nation's 10 greatest places to "Find a Nook and Read a Book."
