Library Hosting Night of Poetry

Rapid City, S.D. – The Rapid City Public Library and High Plains Writers Group will host a Winter Poets' Gathering on Friday, Jan. 22. Poets, literary fans and those looking for a unique Friday night experience are all invited to the evening of poetry.

Poets are invited to come and present their work. Poetry lovers are invited to enjoy original work read by the person who created it. The Winter Poets' Gathering takes place after hours, starting at 7 p.m., at the downtown library solarium (610 Quincy Street). If you would like to present your work, register by stopping in at either library location or calling the library at 394-4171.

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library's downtown library as one of the nation's 10 greatest places to "Find a Nook and Read a Book."
