Learn about therapeutic riding at the Library

Rapid City, SD – March 10, 2011 – The Rapid City Public Library is happy to offer on Wednesday March 16th at 12 P.M. an amazing Lunch and Learn program featuring representatives from the SunCatcher Therapeutic Riding Academy.

SunCatcher Therapeutic Riding Academy is a non-profit organization that provides a comprehensive equine therapy program for children, teens, and adults with disabilities and/or special needs, and disadvantaged children.

Come and learn about what the program does and how SunCatcher’s trained instructors and staff provide an educational, safe and fun experience for riders of all ages and abilities.

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library’s downtown library as one of the nation’s 10 greatest places to “Find a Nook and Read a Book.”
